
Pursuant to Article 7 of the Articles of Association of the Zagreb Stock Exchange, Inc., on 18 September 2017 the Management Board of the Zagreb Stock Exchange, Inc. passed the following

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

OF THE zseLEI SERVICE

Chapter 1

General provisions

Article 1

At the request of G20 members, the Financial Stability Board (abbr. FSB), the international organisation which monitors the global financial system, launched an initiative for the establishment of the Global Legal Entity Identifier System (abbr. GLEIS), within the scope of which each legal entity, as a party to global financial market transactions, can be identified by a single Legal Entity Identifier (abbr. LEI). The LEI Regulatory Oversight Committee carries out the regulatory oversight of the Global LEI System.

LEI is a 20-digit alphanumeric code which enables unique identification of legal entities participating in global financial markets. It is assigned by authorized Local Operating Units (abbr. LOUs).

Article 2

1. These General Terms and Conditions of Use of the zseLEI Service (hereinafter: General Terms and Conditions) regulate the assignment and administration of LEIs by the Zagreb Stock Exchange, Inc., the transfer of LEIs and other issues relevant to the zseLEI Service.
2. These General Terms and Conditions form an integral part of the LEI Assignment and Administration Agreement.

Chapter 2

Chapter 3

LEI assignment and administration services

Article 4

1. LEI assignment and administration services shall be provided via the zseLEI Service.
2. The zseLEI Service shall be available on a 24/7 basis.
3. In the event of the zseLEI Service unavailability for reasons caused by the Exchange, the support service will be available on business days and during business hours of the Exchange.
4. The Exchange may request that a User submits an original document already submitted electronically to the Exchange and other documents necessary for verification and/or confirmation of the information and/or rights of the User or any legal entities represented by the User.

Article 5

1. The User acknowledges and accepts that the LEI assignment and administration service is provided via public network (the Internet).
2. The Exchange waives responsibility for any damage and/or lost gain or costs arising out of/in connection with the use or impossibility to use the zseLEI Service.
3. The User acknowledges and accepts that it is forbidden to transmit into the zseLEI Service any content that is illegal, offensive or potentially misleading, contains viruses or may cause failure or harm to the zseLEI Service.

Article 6

1. The Exchange shall ensure the uniqueness of LEIs.
2. The legal entity may have only one LEI.
3. The Exchange may not reuse a LEI or assign it to another legal entity after its validity has expired.
4. LEI shall be valid for a period of 1 (one) year after it is assigned or continued to be maintained.

Article 7

1. The language used in communication between the User and the Exchange shall be Croatian or English.
2. All documents submitted to the Exchange must be originals or a certified copy issued in accordance with the law and international regulations. Documents originally compiled in another language shall be submitted to the Exchange translated into Croatian or English and shall be certified by an authorised court interpreter.
3. All communications, including any information provided and applications and requests lodged, must be submitted by authorised representatives of the legal entity, and duly dated and signed.

Chapter 4

New user registration

Article 8

The User account shall be used to:

- 1) change the password and information on the User;
- 2) submit applications for the assignment of an LEI;
- 3) update any information on the legal entity in the zseLEI Service;
- 4) submit requests for the LEI transfer to the zseLEI Service.

Article 9

1. The User account shall be opened after the User fills out an electronic form in the zseLEI Service with prescribed information.
2. In order to open a User account, while filling out the form referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, the User shall make a statement that he accepts the content of these General Terms and Conditions.
3. After the User fills out the form referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, the zseLEI Service will generate an activation link and send it to the e-mail address stated by the User in the form referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, including the time limit of the activation link.
4. The activation link shall expire after the User logs into the zseLEI Service, but not later than 5 (five) days from the day of sending the activation link by the Exchange.
5. The access to the User account shall be secured by the username and password.
6. After 3 (three) erroneous password entries, the access to the User account shall be disabled for 1 (one) hour. If the User, on expiry of that time limit, re-enters an incorrect password 3 (three) times, he must contact the Exchange by e-mail at: lei@zse.hr with a request for reactivation of the User account.
7. In the event of a change in the information prescribed as necessary for the opening of the User account, the User shall promptly notify the Exchange of such a change by e-mail at: lei@zse.hr.
8. The User is the only person authorised to use the username and password and shall protect these against unauthorised use by third persons. The User shall not give his username or password or make them available to a third person for the purpose of enabling unauthorised access to and/or use of the zseLEI Service. The User shall be responsible for all actions and/or omissions made to the zseLEI Service by the use of his username and password. In the event of a loss, theft or any other unauthorised use of the username and password, the User shall promptly notify the Exchange by e-mail at: lei@zse.hr. The Exchange shall take all actions necessary to prevent unauthorised use or zseLEI Service use and shall issue a new password to the User.

Chapter 5

Article 10

1. After opening a User account, the User may submit an application for LEI assignment only by means of an electronic form.
2. In case the application is submitted by the employee of the legal entity the authorisation letter has to be submitted.
3. In the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, the User shall fill in all prescribed information on the legal entity applied for LEI assignment and shall submit it to the Exchange via the zseLEI Service.
4. In addition to the paragraph 3 of this article, the User shall fill in all prescribed information and deliver all required documents relating to its direct and ultimate accounting consolidating parent in accordance to the accounting definition of consolidation applying to the parent.
5. The User has the right to withhold the information on its direct and ultimate accounting consolidating parent provided to state an opt-out reason.
6. The date on which the application for LEI assignment submitted by the User is recorded on the Exchange server shall be the deemed to be the date of the application submission. The Exchange shall confirm receipt of the application to the User via an e-mail without delay.
7. An LEI Assignment and Administration Agreement shall be deemed concluded at the time the Exchange assigns an LEI to the User in accordance with Article 16(1), or in accordance with Article 21(5) of these General Terms and Conditions. These General Terms and Conditions, together with an application for LEI assignment or an request for LEI transfer, notification of the application acceptance and an applicable Exchange Price List in the part referring to the described service, shall constitute the LEI Assignment and Administration Agreement. The Agreement shall be concluded for an indefinite period of time.

Article 11

1. The User may cancel the application for LEI assignment until the Exchange assigns an LEI to the legal entity, in accordance with Article 15(1) of these General Terms and Conditions.
2. The application shall be cancelled by sending a request for cancellation to the Exchange by an e-mail at: lei@zse.hr.

Article 12

In the application for LEI assignment, the User shall confirm that he has no LEI assigned by another LOU or Exchange and that he has submitted no application for LEI assignment to another LOU or through zseLEI Service.

Article 13

The authorisation letter has to be certified by stamp and signed by the authorized representative of the legal entity.

Article 14

1. An Agent submitting an application for LEI assignment on behalf of a legal entity shall confirm that the legal entity he represents has no LEI assigned by another LOU or Exchange and that he has submitted no application for LEI assignment to another LOU or through zseLEI Service.
2. The Agent shall inform the legal entity on behalf of which he has submitted an application for LEI assignment of their rights and obligations arising out of these General Terms and Conditions.
3. Along with an application for LEI assignment, the Agent shall submit to the Exchange a power of attorney issued in electronic form authorising the Agent to act on behalf and for the account of the legal entity in relations with the Exchange. The power of attorney must be signed by the person authorised to represent the legal entity and contain contact information of the legal entity, including the e-mail address to be used in communication with the Exchange.
4. The power of attorney referred to in paragraph 3 of this article must not be more than 60 (sixty) days old on the day on which the application for LEI assignment is submitted by the Agent. The power of attorney shall be submitted in the original or a certified copy, with the signature of the principal to be certified in an appropriate manner, except where issued to an attorney or a notary public.

Chapter 6

LEI assignment

Article 15

1. On receiving an application for LEI assignment, the Exchange shall verify any information including, but not limited to the following:
 - the legal entity applying for the LEI legally exists;
 - the legal entity applying for the LEI is eligible to do so in accordance to ISO 17442:2012;
 - that the application has been submitted by an employee or Agent of the legal entity to which the application for LEI assignment refers:
 - 1) In case of employee of the legal entity the authorisation letter has been duly submitted and it has been signed by the person authorised to represent the legal entity in the relevant business register.
 - 2) In case of agent of the legal entity that a power of attorney referred to in Article 14(3) of these General Terms and Conditions has been duly submitted and that it has been signed by a person authorised to represent the legal entity.
 - that the legal entity to which the application for LEI assignment refers has no LEI assigned by another LOU or Exchange and that no application for LEI assignment has already been submitted;
 - that any information on the legal entity stated in the application for LEI assignment corresponds to the information in the relevant business register where the legal entity is registered;
 - that the relationship between the legal entity and its direct and ultimate accounting parent is corroborated by the validation documents delivered by the User.

2. After determining that the application for LEI assignment is correct, the Exchange shall send an e-mail to the User by which it accepts the application for LEI assignment.
3. The e-mail referred to in paragraph 2 of this article by which the User's application for LEI assignment is accepted shall also include an instruction for payment of the LEI assignment fee.
4. If finding, in the verification process, that certain prescribed information is missing or that it is inaccurate, the Exchange shall contact the person who submitted the application and request the information to be completed or corrected.
5. If the User fails to complete or correct the prescribed information within 7 (seven) business days of the date of application submission, the Exchange shall notify the User by an e-mail that the application has not been accepted.
6. Where an Agent has submitted an application for LEI assignment in respect of more than one legal entity, on its verification, the Exchange may accept the application in respect of a legal entity whose information submitted in the application has been found to be as prescribed. The application shall be denied in respect of any other legal entities whose information submitted in the application is not found to be as prescribed.
7. The User is aware that it is obliged to supply true, full and authentic information in its application for the LEI assignment. This obligation extends to all information, details and documents provided by the User.

Article 16

1. The Exchange shall assign a LEI within 2 (two) business days of payment of the fee referred to in Article 15(3) of these General Terms and Conditions.
2. The Exchange shall notify the User of the LEI assigned and its validity by e-mail.
3. If the fee is not paid, the application for LEI assignment shall be rejected.

Chapter 7
